

RESUME - JOHN HOVEY

Current Position Title: Managing Director

Current Role & Responsibilities: Ensure business profitability while maintaining and monitoring all aspects of the business to ensure ethical compliance with statutory requirements including health, safety & environment. Provides leadership and vision to the organization. Promotes the Company through engagements at industry conferences and involvement in local business organisations. Conduct official correspondence of the Company and execute legal documents.

Qualifications:

HC / HR Divers License

Statement Of Attainment to Carry Out Tilt- Up Concrete Works Safely

Statement Of Attainment to Supervise Tilt-Up Concrete Works

John has 30 years experience in the civil construction industry, starting S & J Excavations in 1986 and Australind Premix Concrete in 1994. John has successfully grown the business, currently employing approximately 80 workers, from a small family business to a major civil contractor in the South West.

John is a committee member of the Master Builders Association WA and has been for 11 years

John is an active board member of the Civil Contractors Federation and has been for 6 years

John is a community board member of the Kemberton Industrial Park Coordinating Committee and has been for 5 years

John is an active Rotarian and has been for 6 years

Time with current Company: 28 years

Time in current position: 28 years

All dates for and details of previous employers: N/A

Names of previous employers: N/A